

This course consists of over 3 hours of online instruction and training on URC 522, the rules governing the operation of documentary collections.

MODULE 1: LESSONS

This module provides a firm foundation in the operation of Collection processes and the application of URC 522.

(3 interactive lessons)

- What is a Collection?
- The parties involved
- The collection cycle

MODULE 3: ASSESSMENT

This module provides an assessment for trainees to test their knowledge on ICC's Uniform Rules for Collections, URC 522.

BENEFITS

- Quality - Our courses are developed in collaboration with internationally renowned experts
- Consistency - Delivered online, each trainee can be trained to an approved standard regardless of location
- Convenience - Save time and money by taking our courses online.
- Value for money - Courses start at 300 Euros per trainee.

MODULE 2: PRACTICAL CASE STUDIES

This module enables a trainee to put their understanding of the operation of Collections and the application of URC 522 into practice through a series of case studies.

(3 Interactive Case Studies)

- Complete a Collection Instruction
- Make decisions based on URC 522
- Lead a collections workshop

MODULE 4: RESOURCES

This module provides access to sample commercial and financial documents as well as crosswords.

KEY POINTS

- Hours: 3 hours of online training
- CPDs: Earn 3 CPDs for CDCS, CSDG, CSCF and CTFC recertification.
- Approved By: Gary Collyer - Senior Technical Adviser to the ICC Banking Commission.
- Certificate: Receive a Certificate of Achievement
- Access: 24/7 for a period of one year
- Cost: 300 Euro per course – volume discounting